January 28, 2012
Saturday, 11-5 PM

18 Hands Gallery is hosting its 2nd annual Earring Slam Jam on the 28th of January from 11-5. We are calling all artists to submit entries for the event. Prizes will be given for best recycled materials, most creative use of materials and funkiest earrings. All work must be for sale and you are allowed as many entries as you would like. The only rule is the earrings must retail for under $75. 18 Hands Gallery is asking for a 35% commission plus any credit card fees on any work that is sold. For more information, please contact the gallery at 713-869-3099 or e-mail at info@18HandsGallery.com. This event is about having fun. We encourage the artists to show up and set up demonstration booth if you would like. We'll be providing strawberries with chocolate fondue and champagne.

Please let us know if you are interested in participating in our Earring Slam by contacting the gallery by e-mail (info@18HandsGallery.com) or by phone 713-869-3099
